

Life after LOSS

SUPPORT GROUP

Sponsored by Heart & Soul Hospice, the Life After Loss bereavement support group is a safe place to process grief, learn healthy coping skills and connect with others who are addressing grief issues. You do not have to be a recipient of Heart & Soul services to participate in Life After Loss. This group is open to the public.

The Life After Loss bereavement support group meets the third Thursday of every month from 4:30 to 6 p.m. at the Heart & Soul office, 412 Cayce Street in Farmington. An RSVP is encouraged, but not required, and can be made by calling 573-756-7066 or emailing farmingtonhospice@pmma.org.

RICK HAYES, MSW

Richard joined Heart & Soul Hospice in February 2020. He owns and operates Rick's Muffler Shop in Farmington. He also provides ministerial, family and individual counseling through Leadbelt Pentecostal Church of Bonne Terre, Mo. He has a master's degree in social work from the University of Missouri in St. Louis with an emphasis in family dynamics, and he is an ordained minister through the United Pentecostal Church International. When he's not working, he enjoys time with family and friends, attending church and working with classic cars.

DAVID DUNCAN, CHAPLAIN

David is the director of spiritual care and bereavement services for Heart & Soul Hospice. David provides bereavement services to the families for up to 13 months following a patient's passing. David graduated from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary with a Master's degree. He has also received Clinical Pastoral Education through Mercy Hospital in Springfield, Mo.
